

Nappy Sack Frame Safety Information

Please note: the Nappy Sack Frame is not lifting equipment, as defined by LOLER (Lifting Operations and Lifting Equipment Regulations). Lifting eyes are for moving and unloading the empty Frame only.

The Sacks, however, are lifting equipment and have their own certificate stitched on the side of the outer bag. The Sack must be removed and the water drained from the sump prior to lifting.

